

FINANCIAL LITERACY RESOURCES FOR PARENTS

- Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB)
consumerfinance.gov
Provides free tools and age-appropriate activities for parents to teach children about saving, spending, and financial decision-making.
- Dave Ramsey's Smart Money Smart Kids
ramseysolutions.com
Practical advice and tools for teaching children about earning, saving, and spending wisely.
- Jump$tart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy
jumpstart.org
Offers resources and tools for teaching kids and teens about money management through the National Standards in K–12 Personal Finance Education.
- Junior Achievement USA
ja.org
Focuses on youth financial literacy and career readiness, with programs and tips parents can access or explore locally.
- Khan Academy – Personal Finance
khanacademy.org
Free lessons covering a wide range of financial topics, suitable for teens and older children.
- Money as You Grow
consumerfinance.gov/money-as-you-grow
A CFPB initiative offering easy-to-follow money lessons and activities for kids of all ages.
- MyMoney.gov
mymoney.gov
A federal government website that helps families understand the five building blocks of financial literacy: Earn, Save & Invest, Protect, Spend, and Borrow.
- National Endowment for Financial Education (NEFE)
nefe.org

A nonprofit with tools, articles, and programs to promote financial education for all ages.

➤ Next Gen Personal Finance (NGPF)

ngpf.org

Offers free curriculum and games for teaching students personal finance, including parent-friendly resources.

➤ Practical Money Skills

practicalmoneyskills.com

Offers games, lessons, and financial calculators for all age levels, including parent-specific tools.

➤ Scholastic Parents – Financial Literacy

scholastic.com/parents

Offers tips and activities to help parents teach young children about money in simple and fun ways.

➤ The Mint

themint.org

Provides fun, interactive tools for kids, teens, and parents to explore money management together.